In preparation, please have some loose change, $4.80 or a GoCard <http://translink.com.au/tickets-and-fares/go-card/new-to-go-card> and a water bottle. Morning tea will be at Kelvin Gove campus and lunch will be in the South Bank precinct.

Tour size is limited to a maximum of 25 participants.

When: Thursday July 9, 2015, 9:00-10:30

Where: Queensland University of Technology Kelvin Grove Campus Library

Where to meet: Meet at the Alice Street bus stop 95A (close to the intersection with Albert St) Brisbane City at 8:30am.

The bus stop is just outside the QUT venue for the conference.

Getting there: Catch the shuttle bus from the Alice Street bus stop and travel in a group to Queensland University of Technology (QUT) Kelvin Grove Campus. This is a free bus and passes will be organised for you.

About the tour: Explore the award winning redeveloped library, experience the space which synchronises new technologies with personal and group learning spaces and hear the stories that led to the completed, highly attractive and well used library space.

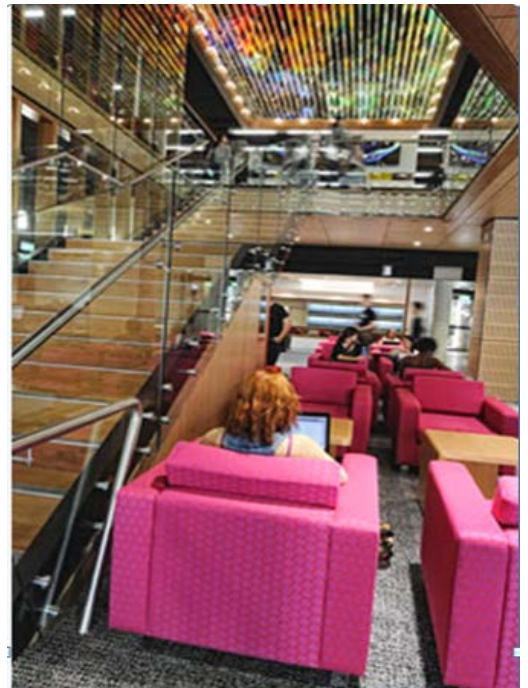

Morning tea will be at Beadles, located on the Kelvin Grove Campus.

Tour concludes at 10:30

Tour continues to State Library of Queensland

Getting there: Move from the library to QUT busway, platform one. The bus travels in the direction of the city. Cost is $4.80 for a paper ticket. These can be purchased on the platform beforehand and will save us some time when boarding the bus. Select destination as Cultural Centre from the ticket dispenser. Those with a Go Card, it will cost $3.35 and just tag as you enter the bus.

Catch the 333 or 66 bus at 10.48 (these buses run every 15 minutes), to Cultural Centre, South Bank. Walk 428m to State Library of Queensland.
